

The Markings

Here is a list of the markings and their explanation.

The Marking:	The Reason:
bath	We underline a phonogram that has more than one letter to show that together they make one sound.
he r.4	We underline a vowel saying its long sound at the end of a syllable and write in r.4.
<sup>3</sup> do	We put a number above a phonogram if it says a sound other than the first sound.
<sup>3</sup> you	We underline a phonogram that has more than one letter and put a number above it to show which sound it is making.
of	We underline a phonogram twice if it does not say its typical sound or if we do not hear it in the word.
let ter	We put a finger space to show where words are broken into syllables.
time	Marking for the first job of silent "e": 'e' jumps over the consonant to make the vowel say its long sound.
love blue	Marking for the second job of silent "e": English words can not end in 'u' or 'v'.
charge dance	Marking for the third job of silent "e": 'e' tells the 'g' to say 'j' or 'c' to say 's' lit tle	Marking for the fourth job of silent "e": Every syllable has to have a vowel are	Marking for the fifth job of silent "e": No job 'e', the 'e' is present for no reason.
[ May may	We bracket words to show a connection between them.