

---

Code of Conduct

Be prepared for class each day.

- Be in your seat when the bell rings.
- Have your required materials with you and ready to go.
- Begin working on any assignments on the board.

Be respectful of others and their feelings, beliefs and ideas.

Only one person will speak at a time, except during the classroom discussion period.

- When classroom discussions take place, offer your opinion only when someone has finished speaking.
- Inappropriate disruptions will not be tolerated.
- Use of inappropriate language will not be allowed.

Leave all electronic devices in backpacks or bags. Anything found to be “visible or evident” will be confiscated.

There is a “NO TEXTING” policy in the classroom.

Remember to keep your area clean at all times. Inspect your area prior to leaving the classroom.

The teacher will dismiss the class, not the bell.

All rules and regulations in the student handbook apply in this class, except for the rare occasions when -

- A special situation is approved by the teacher, and / or
  - There is approval from the administration.
-