Highlights from This Week!

In reading we read a cute fairytale about a chicken who wanted to become a Hollywood Star. She hires an agent and ends up earning a star on the Hollywood Chicken Walk of Fame.

In writing we wrote an opinion paragraph about what season we think is the best and why. We also worked on adding transition words into our writing as well.

In math, we have been continuing to work on our double-digit addition skills with and without regrouping. The students are focused and determine to master this tricky concept.

On Thursday, we participated in Navarrete's Annual Veterans Day Celebration. The second grades had the opportunity to share a short and sweet poem to remind and thank all the veterans for being our heroes!
