

We want you for the...

Patterson Postal Service

As a fourth grader at Patterson you have the opportunity to become an employee of the Patterson Postal Service. We are looking for fourth graders who show responsibility and leadership in their daily school life.

Post office employees will be hired to work a shift once a week for an entire quarter. These shifts are on Friday mornings from 7:45 to 8:15. Employees need to provide their own transportation. (Postmasters will work first quarter and the first two weeks of the other quarters)

Only a few employee will be hired each quarter. All other applicants will be put on a waiting list to work if a position opens up or work the next available quarter. All fourth graders employed by the postal service are expected to show a higher level of responsibility and keep up on their daily school work. If grades, responsibility, or behavior become a concern, employees will be suspended or released.

Employees must...

- Have parent permission to work for the PPS
 - Fill out the online job application
