ENG705 Honors Language Arts 7

Semester 1, SY 2023-24

Course Overview

Course Description

ENG705 Honors Language Arts 7 (One Year): This standards-based course is designed for students above grade level in reading comprehension and writing. In writing instruction, emphasis will be placed on the 6+1 traits of writing: ideas and content, word choice, organization, sentence fluency, voice, conventions, and format. Students will write summaries, expository essays, and literary responses that contain effective introductory and summary statements and fully develop the main ideas with details, facts, examples, and descriptions. Students will also learn to analyze literature by introducing various literary elements in poetry, short stories, plays, and novels.

Advanced Placement (AP) / International Baccalaureate (IB) / Dual Enrollment

This course is not an AP, IB, or Dual Enrollment course. An additional syllabus is not required for this course.

Student Conduct, Success, and Responsibilities

Student Handbook

Students must follow the policies and procedures established in the Student Handbook. Copies of the handbook can be found at <https://www.cusd80.com/handbooks>. Printed copies will be provided upon request.

To Be Successful

- Engage in lessons and put forth your best effort
- Use organizational skills in order to be prepared
- Complete and turn in all assignments

Student Responsibilities

- Follow classroom procedures
- Bring materials daily (including a charged Chromebook!!)
- Check google classroom for notes and assignments when absent
- Cheating and plagiarism are not acceptable

Late work

All work is accepted, but grades will be reduced. See teacher for individual policies.

Assessments and Assignments

Students will complete assessments during each unit of study to assess their understanding. Students will complete the CUSD common final following semester one and semester two. The common final will count for 20% of the student's final semester grade in grades 9-12 and 10% in grades 7-8 (some exceptions may apply at the Junior High level). Common finals will be in ELA, Math, Science, Social Science, and World Language.

Final exams will be given during the CUSD Jr High/High School Early Dismissal days in December and May, as identified on the District Calendar.

If students are requested to participate in a survey, the survey questions will be provided to parents/guardians seven days before student contact.

- 45/45/10: Each quarter accounts for 45% of the semester grade and the final exam accounts for the remaining 10%

Units of Study

- Generations: What can one generation learn from another?
 - Young people often learn from older people, but sometimes it works the other way around
- A Starry Home: Should we make a home in space?
 - Are there worlds beyond our galaxy? Should we find out?
- Turning Points: What can cause a sudden change in someone's life?
 - Life is filled with little moments and big moments. Most of the time, they just pass by, but sometimes an event or experience can change someone's life in an instant.
- People and the Planet: What effects do people have on the environment?
 - Many people wonder at the beauty of nature, but do they wonder about the future of our planet?
- Facing Adversity: How do we overcome obstacles?
 - Sometimes life can feel like an obstacle course, but if we try hard enough we can usually make it over the hurdles
- Novel Studies/Literary Analysis
