

Simile

Metaphor

Figures of Speech

Alliteration

Allusion

Personification

compares two or more things, using like or as compares two or more things, does not use like or as the repetition of sounds at the beginning of words refers to a well-known story, event, person, or object an animal, object, force of nature, or idea is described like a human used for descriptive effect, often to hint at ideas