

Retract: withdraw (a statement or accusation) as untrue or unjustified.

Credibility: the quality of being trusted and believed in; the quality of being convincing or believable.

Fabricate: invent or concoct (something), typically with deceitful intent.

Falsify: alter (information or evidence) so as to mislead.

Fraudulently: in a way that involves deception, especially criminal deception.