

Cut around each page carefully. Put them in the correct order and then staple them together.

Shield volcanoes are some of the biggest mountains in the world!

An example of this type of volcano is _____ which is located in _____.

It last erupted in _____.

Shield volcanoes are made up of layers of _____. They are very wide and broadly shaped.

Describe how shield volcanoes erupt.

Shield Volcano

Add more details and information about volcanoes to the left!

Sketch a shield volcano.

Cinder cones are the most common type of volcano. They are often found on the sides of other volcanoes. Cinder cones are made of layers of _____ and _____.

They are usually not very tall and are shaped like a _____.

They have a clearly defined _____ at their summit.

Describe how cinder cones erupt.

Cinder Cone

Add more details and information about volcanoes to the left!

Sketch a cinder cone.

