

Name: _____ Hour: _____

History Head

Directions: Research your assigned Roman emperor/famous figure and then put pictures in and around your skull showing the type of things the person was involved in while alive and things that were important to them. You may use pictures from wherever you can find them, such as from magazines, the Internet or things you have drawn.

After you have completed your picture, place a number next to the picture and then list them on the back of this piece of paper. In a sentence or two describe how the picture helps understand your person.
