PERSONALITY!!

*uMovie technology cannot be seen from the outside of the glasses. The microchips are strategically placed in the frames as to not be seen.

How it works....

The uMovie glasses are a set of glassware that increase your movie experience. Tiny moving Pixels and high definition software create moving images. Through the use of high definition projectors, and advanced photoplay the uMovie surpasses all movie players in the current market. With advanced technicians uMovie is constantly upgrading and improving its product.

2D: is free to any uMovie buyers and comes on the uMovie app. With 2D you are guaranteed an awesome experience with motion pictures that excel all other motion picture options such as Netflix and Harkins Theatre.

3D: is only 8 US dollars a month to any buyer and allows you to get a real life experience that draws you in and brings the movie to life.

4D: for only 10 dollars a month you can get the whole movie experience. 4D is a step up from 3D as it incorporates all your senses. With tiny microscopic misters, and advanced digital microchips the uMovie 4D puts the user in the movie. With 4D the user can also watch the movie from the lead character's point of view.

wiMovie: Free to all users, setting that connects multiple uMovie glasses to the same movie, so users can watch movies or shows together.

WHY OUR PRODUCT IS BETTER THAN THE REST

The current leader in movie watching technology is Netflix. However, the uMovie, is cheaper, has better quality motion picture, and has 4 settings. The uMovie can be watched from all places, with or without wifi, and has a practical effect, as it provides prescription lenses when not being used. Netflix often times buffers, and resets however the uMovie guarantees a perfect, uninterrupted movie experience.

WHERE THEY WILL BE SOLD...

With the money we hope to acquire today, we wish to open a separate branch to manufacture and sell uMovie technology.

The uMovie will also be sold online at uMovie.com.

Target, Walmart, Best Buy, and phone stores such as Verizon and Sprint will be selling them.

They will also be available through amazon.

REVIEWS FROM OUR USER

“The uMovie is such a cool product. I use it every day, and cant stop binge watching my favorite shows. So worth the price.” (Shelly Hansen, 19).

“My kids love it and are always asking if hey can use the glasses. Such a great way to occupy them but I also personally love it. Five Stars” (Greg Dayley, 43).

“So user friendly, Im not to great with technology but can use the uMovie with ease. My grandkids love it as well, its a total crowd pleaser. Makes watching movies that much better. Im now never bored” (Beth Maine, 71).

“Super innovated and totally unique. Its different than any other movie experience I have had. I bring it along everrywhere. The actual glasses are very cute and practical. LOVE IT!!!!!!!!!!” (Ellen Degeneres).

Celebrities, Political Figures, Athletes, all love the uMovie and you will too!!
