Parent -Teacher Conferences

One of the most essential building blocks of home-school communication is the parent-teacher conference. You can provide extremely valuable information about your child, information most teachers desperately need to do the best possible job of educating your child.

Research confirms that parent involvement is a good thing. Schools improve and students excel when parents are involved that is why I am so pleased to be meeting with you.

Ready to discover the characters and stories your kids love? With expertly curated selections, plus the chance to earn rewards for the classroom with every order, Scholastic Book Clubs is here to boost your kid's reading fandom and maybe even create moments of quality time you can share together!

During the conferences, we will be reviewing goals based on your child's assessments, progress toward those and strategies to assist them in attaining those goals.

Please bring any questions or concerns you may be having. This is our opportunity to discuss these items. I look forward to meeting with you.

Please look for an email from Sign-up Genius.

If I do not receive a preference I will assign the first available time. You should receive your conference time confirmation no later than Monday, August 20. If you have not received it, please contact me.

If you have any questions please contact me nickerson.sundra@cusd80.com OR 480-883-4064.
