

CHANDLER HIGH WOLF BATES

WINNING WOLVES

CHS's Badminton doubles team of Alexis Mee and Qindeel Kanwar finished second in the State Doubles Badminton Championships! Congrats, Alexis and Qindeel!

CHS Wolves Football finished their sweep of all CUSD varsity football teams with a 55-10 win at Basha last Friday! Great job, Wolves!

At last Monday's volleyball match, four seniors were celebrated at Senior Night. They are Holly Achs, Diana Hernandez, Gianni Brown, and Eryn Guevara. After the pre-game celebration, CHS went on to beat Tempe 3-0. Congrats, Wolves!

CHS's Chamber Orchestra, under the direction of Danelle Kennedy, rocked it out last week with CTS in a benefit rock concert at the CCA. The music, lights, and inspirational messages combined for a truly awesome experience for the students and a great concert for the hundreds in attendance!

Jetaun Booker, a CHS Junior, serves as a member of the American Diabetes Association Youth Leadership Council. On September 22nd, a group of advocates for diabetes prevention and cure met with Congressman Matt Salmon to share their stories. Jetaun shared info about how diabetes personally affects her life through her great uncle's struggles with managing his Type 2 diabetes. Great work, Jetaun!

Congratulations to the Girls Cross Country team for winning the City Meet last Thursday night at Tumbleweed Park. CHS had five girls place in the top 14 spots which earned them All-City awards. Alexis Nichols came in 1st, Ava Hamilton came in 2nd and Gabby Enns came in 3rd. The three runners were also named to the All-CUSD Cross Country Team. Additionally, Coach Matt Lincoln was named All-CUSD Girls Coach of the Year. Good luck as you head into Sectionals and State!
