

WINNING WOLVES

Vidal Mejia, CHS Multi-Media Teacher and Wrestling Coach, will be awarded one of the Si Se Puede Foundation's "Cesar Chavez Educator of the Year" Awards at its annual dinner on Saturday, April 5th. The event honors outstanding Chandler educators. The Si Se Puede Foundation has been an integral part of Chandler's diverse community since its inception in 1993, and has helped thousands of children and adults on an annual basis through its comprehensive after-school and scholarship programs.

Congratulations to Tejas Dharmaraj and Manav Sevak for winning the Junior Science and Humanities Symposium (JSHS) Competition held at ASU last week. As a result of their win, Manav will present their project at the national competition which will be held in Washington, DC on April 23rd through April 27th. Good luck, Tejas and Manav!

Congratulations to the Chandler Winterguard for receiving the Bronze medal this past weekend at the WGAZ Championships in Scholastic Regional AA. The team worked very hard this season and competed in a very tough class. Congrats, Winterguard!

Recent Wolf Wins:

- V Girls Tennis def. Perry 6-3 and is currently 4-1 for the season
- V Boys Volleyball def. Combs 3-0
- JV Boys Volleyball def. Combs 2-1

SOFTBALL UPDATE

The future looks bright for Chandler Softball! With a very young and talented varsity team, they started the season off strong taking 2nd place in the Dobson/Marcos De Niza Softball Tournament on February 26th-March 1st. The Lady Wolves have continued to play well in one of, if not the most, difficult sections in the state with a current record of 2-2 including a great win in the bottom of the 7th last week to beat Marcos De Niza 6-5. Come out and support your Lady Wolves this week with Freshman/JV home games Tuesday and Friday and varsity at home on Thursday. All games are at 4:00 p.m. Hope to see you there!

2014 WORLD LANGUAGE EXPO

On Thursday, March 27th, the 2014 World Language Expo invaded the CHS courtyard. Students and guests enjoyed foods from around the world such as bratwurst and crepes, while numerous clubs and individuals demonstrated their cultural talents and pride. This terrific event was hosted by CHS's World Language Department.

CHANDLER'S GOT TALENT

Talent was in the house on Thursday, March 27th! CHS students, and even a group of dancing English teachers, wowed the crowd. Congratulations to 1st place winner Amanda Gronberg, whose talented voice and ability to work the crowd left the audience in complete awe. Sarah Nelson, the 2nd place winner, played the piano flawlessly. For 3rd place, Nicholas Applegate played the piano and channeled his inner Josh Groban. For 4th place, 4 Guys (Jarrett Jensen, Nolan Vale, Patrick Gaughan, and Jacob Lipp) compiled a funky instrumental to jam out to. Finally, Angel Calleros came in 5th place for his original rap. All performers did an outstanding job!

IT'S A WRAP!

The Chandler High Unified Cheerleading squad has been wrapped! A photo of the CHS Unified Cheer team has been "wrapped" on a truck used for a variety of events around the state sponsored by Special Olympics Arizona. Jessica Peacock, teacher and unified coach at CHS, has been instrumental in Special Olympics Arizona and working with students in CUSD who participate in the program district-wide.

INTERESTED IN HOSTING A FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT?

This is the time of year that placement agencies are looking for families to host exchange students interested in attending American schools and experiencing our culture. If you're interested in hosting a foreign exchange student, please contact Kim Bunch at 480-812-7735.

AVID BOOK STUDY

CHS's DonorsChoose project, AVID Book Study, is still receiving donations. More than half of the project has already been funded, but we're looking for additional donations by June 18th to meet our goal. If you'd like to help purchase books that will help AVID (Advancement Via Individual Determination) students engage in literacy improvement, practice Socratic discussions, be more organized, have better study habits, and be more aware of what makes a good college match for them, please click here. Thank you!
