Phonograms & Spelling * Reviewing all 45 phonograms that have been introduced.	Reading * Continuing to practice identifying stories as narratives (characters, setting, plot, $\epsilon$ written to entertain us) or informatives (main idea/topic, facts, $\epsilon$ written to teach us) based upon their structure.	 Writing Constructing oral sentences that make sense and are on-topic. Journal writing 	 Math * Reviewing Kindergarten math skills. * Recognizing $ correctly writing numbers 1-50. * Counting to 100 by 1's, 5's, and 10's, to 20 by 2's, and backwards from 20. 	Science & Social Science * Reviewing Habits I-7 * Needs & Wants Making Choices HOORAY for SCHOOL!

THE KINDER TEAM WOULD REALLY LIKE TO REMIND YOU...

- * Log books on the Reading Log, which is checked every Monday for a grade.
- * For written phonogram homework, we prefer QUALITY over QUANTITY! Practicing incorrectly creates a bad habit that is difficult to break and is counter-productive to what is done in class. Remember, FINGER SPACES between phonograms.
- * Orally count with your kinder, daily (new stop skills outlined above in math section). These concepts can be learned and mastered anywhere, in the car on the way to school, before bedtime, etc. YOUTUBE also has some great, educational videos to help your kinder with counting.
- * Pack a WATER BOTTLE DAILY for your kinder.
- * Pack a DAILY SNACK that can be eaten quickly without utensils and separate from their lunchbox.
- * School = Messy Business-please keep a change of uniform clothing (including socks) in a Ziploc bag in your child's backpack.
