SECOND SEMESTER
RESEARCH

GENERAL PROJECT INFORMATION
We will spend third quarter researching and writing a specific topic of your choice—YAY! You will develop your own topic, research questions, and proposal. I will provide suggestions for modifying your research focus if necessary. Fourth quarter you will transform your research into digital media and present your work.

There are many steps to this research project and each individual step will end in a graded assignment.
Each step will include instructions, class discussion, and guided practice. We will spend time in class working on the steps and related assignments, but you will also be required to spend time outside of class working on each step of the process. We will use APA formatting for writing research.

The final research paper will serve as your final exam for the semester. If you do not do this assignment, you will not be able to graduate. Final exam test day will consist of a normal-weighted cumulative test.

TOPIC CRITERIA
• Consider a topic related to the field of study or career path you wish to pursue.
• To find your topic, contemplate on what makes you feel passionate.
• Topics that only provide moral or subjective arguments are not acceptable.
• You will argue from an objective standpoint.
• All three rhetorical appeals will be incorporated in your argument.
• Topics must be approved and I reserve the right to reject topics.
• Topics to Avoid: abortion, capital punishment, marijuana legalization, immigration, same-sex marriage, and vaccinations.
