Community News

Reading logs - no log this short week! They will be handed out again on Monday and are due the following Monday. Students need to log 5 different days of reading at home throughout the week. A parent signature at the bottom is required for full credit. Please check in with your child to make sure s/he is on track.

Thankful for YOU! I want to say how appreciated and valued you are to me. Getting to know everyone fills my bucket. And for all do for the class on a daily basis - THANK YOU! I count you all in my blessings for sure.

LOTS of kiddos have been out sick or due to travel. Stay healthy, get rest, and let me know how I can support, if needed. As a reminder, missed work must be made up timely.
